

“Linux Platforms truly unbeatable” !..??

IPSR Newsletter

July - 2016 | Vol: 7

A new era has ushered in the history of computers and networking as the Linus Torvald on 1992 released a UNIX like operating system LINUX as the first complete free software operating system. Over the passage of time this had scaled a considerable growth and refinement, now this typical distribution encompasses everything the end user needs at an enterprise level or the personal favorite of most of the user's personal systems.

Success Story of the Month (Nothing is Impossible in IT!!)

These are the Success stories of Students with career issues such as; cut-off mark issues, arrears, year-gap, non IT background etc. Our motto of publishing these stories are to make other students aware that, they can also dream high if they wish to.

"The training at IPSR helped me gain what I lacked. The .Net technology trainers were very supportive and the extra sessions on MVC helped me to clear the technical interview. Internship on live project gave me a professional experience. Communication Skill Development Sessions and extra classes in MVC, Entity framework & Python gave me confidence to face the interviews. Now I am happy that I got placed in Zybow Solutions Ltd, Technopark"
